Figure S14 Prediction accuracy $r_{\Pi}$ (for populations represented in training set) for trait kernel rows in the interconnected biparental maize populations. The points correspond to the replications of the cross-validation. The number of populations in the training set is $P$ and the average number of individuals per population is $N_p$. The number of markers used was 285.