Figure S7 Prediction accuracy $r_3$ (for populations represented in training set) for trait ear height in the NAM population. The points correspond to the replicates of the cross-validation. The number of populations in the training set is $P$ and the number of individuals per population is $N_i$. The number of markers used was 575.