

Figure S9 Values from Figure 3 B and C plotted against one another to demonstrate the effects of using either the prior (130k) SNP set for the kinship matrix or the MDA (550k) SNP set. While variation is observed between the two datasets at non-significant P-values, significant ($-\log(P) > 5.4$) P-values are barely changed.