

Figure S14 Positions of local eQTL used for the aligning the expression arrays and genotype data. Marker locations are indicated by horizontal line segments on the genetic map. The points to the right of each chromosome indicate the eQTL locations, with different colors for different tissues.